Holidays in the Forest

The modern Christmas tree originated in Germany, where families set up a paradise tree in their homes on December 24, the religious feast day of Adam and Eve.

Festive Luxury

Christmas bisque is a classic, elegant, French soup (probably originally from the Bay of Biscay, known for its crustaceans).

Christmas with the Gaels

The Yule wreath was a giant wheel that the Vikings set on fire and threw down a hill to wish for the return of the Sun. It is theorised that the Yule wreath was the ancestor of the Christmas wreath on our doors today.

Christmas can get Ruined by Carving at the Table

Carving a turkey, despite the fuss made over it, requires only a little manual dexterity, a sharp knife and some common sense.
